FAQ's

How do I reserve my child's birthday party?

Complete/submit the facility rental agreement to Rideout Community Center. Pay for your party in full on the day of your booking. Cash, check and credit card are accepted. In addition, a $100 security/damage deposit is required at time of booking.

As the party host, what can I bring to the party?

Decorations. Adults may decorate the room. However, all decorations must be applied with masking tape and must not damage walls, ceilings, door, windows etc. The host family is responsible for supplying all food that will be provided to guests. A refrigerator and freezer are available for your use on the day of the party along with a sink.

Who supplies the paper products and plastic goods?

The host family is responsible to provide table covers, cups, plates, napkins, serving utensils, eating utensils and candles. Trash bags and cleaning supplies are provided.

As the party host, am I responsible for cleaning up the room?

Yes. Please ensure that all trash is bagged and that your decorations are removed. Our staff will wipe down the tables and clean the floor prior to the next party or room rental.

I have more than 20 guests and need more hours?

$4 per additional guest. Refer to and pay the private hourly rental rate.
